Invitation to Leap Sandcastle Classic Mentoring Session

If you can answer yes to any of the following questions, have we got a treat for you!

Are you:

- a. A first-time Leap team captain for your organization?
- b. A second or third-time team captain, but feel like maybe you're treading water and missing the boat?
- c. An old-hand Leap captain who really wants to take your team to the next level?
- d. Human?

If any of these categories apply to you, you must attend our one-time-only Sandcastle Mentoring Session! We'll be offering up exciting tips, like:

- how to get money out of subs, vendors, your hairdresser, and maybe that guy in the nice suit on the corner.
- how to get a school and what you're supposed to do with them once you've got them.
- what to do when you're actually at the beach and staring at an expanse of flattened sand and being stared at by an entire elementary school classroom.

And in addition to all this, we're providing:

- refreshments!
- childcare!
- a panel of experts to answer all of your questions! (And we do mean 'all.')

Time: Tuesday, July 22nd, 6 – 7 p.m.

Place: Degenkolb Engineers, 235 Montgomery St., #500

To score a coveted spot, please RSVP to Kim Teevan by July 18th!

Cheers,
